“Change of Address

It has been found that when Fellows change their places of residence, they do not inform the college. As a result communications including the journal and bulletin are not delivered.

It is in the interest of all good standing fellows that if their mailing address is changed they must inform CPSP dispatch section immediately so that they receive JCPSP and Bulletin without any break.”