Q.1  a) As a clinician how will you diagnose Burning Mouth Syndrome?
     b) What are possible causes of Burning Mouth Syndrome?

Q.2  Clasp is one of the important components for the retention of removable partial denture. However aesthetics is the major issue with the unsightly display of metallic clasp.
     How will you manage this problem in conventional removable partial dentures?

Q.3  What are the clinical situations in which long-term soft liners are used as a therapeutic measure for complete denture patient?

Q.4  What are the clinical features of “Paget’s Disease”? Give its prosthetic implications.

Q.5  A 50 years old patient complains of recurrent pain and inflammation of oral mucosa associated with the denture.
     a) What are the possible causes of inflammation related to denture?
     b) How will you manage them?

Q.6  As a prosthodontist how can you help 68 years old lady wearing conventional complete denture for last 10 years and has now developed epulis fissuratum?
Q.7 What type of processing defects can occur during processing of heat cure acrylics?

Q.8 Being a newly appointed faculty, you have been tasked by hospital administration to formulate a cross infection control policy for your departmental dental laboratory. Enlist the key points of your plan.

Q.9 a) What are the criteria for primary stress bearing area in edentulous patient? b) Enlist maxillary and mandibular stress bearing areas? c) Which areas require relief on jaw cast used for the making of complete dentures?

Q.10 A 50 year old man reported to prosthodontics department three weeks after cementation of three units Fixed Partial Denture (FPD) with complaint of pain in the pontic area of the FPD. What are the possible causes for this?
Q.11 In the absence of a prosthesis restoring the edentulous area, the unopposed dentition can over-erupt towards the opposing edentulous area. If restored, the natural dentition can present dynamic and static occlusal interferences and it can be difficult to gain enough space for the standard denture components. What are the different solutions available to deal with these situations?

Q.12 Give the features of a sectional / part removal partial denture for the posterior quadrant of the mandible.

Q.12 Give the principle design for restoring a bounded space for the posterior quadrant of the mandible.

Q.13 What are the possible reasons for not splinting natural teeth and implants supported fixed partial denture?

Q.13 What are the possible reasons for not splinting natural teeth and implants supported fixed partial denture?

Q.14 Which type of patients are ideal for immediate denture services and why?

Q.14 Which type of patients are ideal for immediate denture services and why?

Q.15 A 55 years old patient with total resection of his tongue.

a) What modification is required to rehabilitate this patient?

b) What are the major goals to achieve with the prosthodontic rehabilitation of a patient with total glossectomy?
Q.16 A geriatric patient wearing conventional complete dentures was found to have not maintained the dentures in hygienic condition. Educate the patient about the following:

a) Common denture cleansers
b) Ideal properties of denture cleansers

c) What extra specific care will you adopt in term of esthetics?

Q.17 A 21 years old girl presented with grade 3 mobility of left central incisors. Patient wishes for replacement of the tooth.

a) Give patient assessment plan.

b) What will be your immediate and long term treatment options?

c) What are additional patient considerations you would take into account?

d) What are the Prosthodontic considerations you will follow.

Q.19 A 22 years old lady has a high lip line, which exposes considerable gingival tissues during normal function. She has discolored left central incisor as a result of trauma. She has been provided with endodontic treatment.

Q.20 What are specific critical factors face the selection of abutment teeth overdenture?